Unfinished Business

- a) Buoys at Shady Beach- Brian Trim has a map and measurements for Tom Merrill to use. $114-$140 for new buoys. We could use used buoys, if someone could find them.
- b) Survey of Lakeshore Drive to Establish the Boundaries of Leocadia Park Survey is completed, but the area near the boat launch was not completed effectively. That area is being completed.
- c) Delinquent Dues Policy to be Enacted in Rules and Regulations Brian Trim motioned to accept the policy as changed. Bruce LaRue seconded. Motioned carried.

- d) Lawn Care Bid Five requests were sent for bid. Two bids were returned. Last year was $125 per cut. Green Isle $209 per cut, total $3762. Sharp's bid is $290 per cut $5220. Tom Merrill motioned to accept Green Isle bid of $209 per cut, 18 cuts totalling $3762. Seconded Bruce LaRue. Motion carried
- e) Road Dues Pass Through Discussion of how the corporation will have the road monies available for the road captains.

New Business

a) Boat Launch gravel – Brian Trim motioned to authorize up to $100 to buy gravel to put at the end of the boat launch. Tom Merrill seconded. Bruce LaRue mentioned that we need gravel at the road into the boat launch. The road is graveled from the road fund. Motion carried.

Committee Reports

- (a) Communication
- (b) Beautification

(c) Lake Weed – Florescent is coming from under the ice. As soon as we can there will be a treatment.

(d) By-Law and TWP. Ordinance Enforcement - State of Michigan passed a law any public road access can only be used to access a lake. Scott Chisholm wants to request the township to pass the same law for private lakes.

- (e) Accesses
